

Team Member Declaration Form For Athletes and Staff

Dated:

With the continuing COVID-19 global pandemic still impacting international travel, Field Hockey Canada is aware of the fact that there may be differing levels of comfort towards any travel at this time. As preparations get underway for upcoming international competitions, team members are asked to confirm their availability and acknowledge you understand the risks involved, by completing this declaration form. Only athletes who have completed this waiver will be considered for selection for the event noted within the waiver. Those who do not feel comfortable attending / signing this declaration, be assured: this will not impact your status for further team selections.

Please sign and submit your declaration by emailing the form to your respective national team lead.

If there are any questions you may have, please direct them to your respective national team lead.

Declaration Form

Event:

Date:

I acknowledge I am fully vaccinated in accordance with the recommendations provided by National Advisory Committee on Immunization guidelines for Covid-19 vaccinations and boosters and update policy as required found at: <https://www.canada.ca/en/publichealth/services/immunization/national-advisory-committee-on-immunization-naci.html>.

I understand that the Government of Canada advises against International travel at this time. I understand the associated risks involved with international travel and I am willing to undertake this travel at my own risk and any additional costs.

I acknowledge the possibility that additional costs may be incurred if one or more athletes or staff test positive for COVID-19 while on tour, or if the boarder situation changes while abroad. These additional costs will be my responsibility.

Team members are aware that in the event one or more members of their team, being either athletes or staff, tests positive for COVID-19, or due to changing boarder restrictions, there may be additional costs incurred for isolation and/or a delay in returning home to Canada.
